Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CACP) – www.cacp.ca

The Canadian Association of Chiefs of Police (CAPC) is a national organization which draws its membership from Chief Constables and senior administrators of police services from across Canada. Its main focus is to: act as a forum for its members to discuss current issues in policing; review and comment on pending legislative changes affecting their roles and responsibilities; and advocate for efficient and effective practices in the prevention and detection of crime and the apprehension of offenders.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) – www.rcmp-grc.ca

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police is the Canadian national police services and an agency of the Ministry of Public Safety Canada. The RCMP is unique in the world as it is a national, federal, provincial and municipal policing body. It provides federal policing service to all Canadian and policing services under contract to the three territories, eight provinces (except Ontario and Quebec), more than 190 municipalities, 184 Aboriginal communities and three international airports.

Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the RCMP (CRCC) – www.crcc-ccetp.gc.ca

The Civilian Review and Complaints Commission (CRCC) is an agency independent of the RCMP, established by the federal government to ensure public complaints against members of the RCMP are examined impartially.

Law Enforcement Review Agency (LERA) – www.gov.mb.ca/justice/lera

Established in 1985 under The Law Enforcement Review Act, The Law Enforcement Review Agency (LERA) is an independent, non-police agency that investigates public complaints about police while performing their jobs. LERA deals only with complaints about municipal or local police incidents. It does not investigate criminal matters.

Police Sector Council – www.policecouncil.ca

The Police Sector Council is a centre for Human Resource (HR) information, tools and networks. It supports horizontally in policing – a vision of a sector that is informed about HR issues and challenges, integrated in HR planning and management and aligned and networked to improve policing sector-wide. The council consists of volunteer Board of Directors, including sector leaders from police services/agencies, unions, police boards, training institutes, federal/provincial/municipal governments and stakeholder associations.
